Call for Papers!

Academic Library Division of the Georgia Library Association
Georgia Chapter of ACRL
Georgia Libraries 2018 Conference
October 3-5, 2018
Columbus, Georgia

The Academic Library Division of the Georgia Library Association/Georgia Chapter of ACRL invites Georgia librarians and library science students to submit research papers pertaining to academic libraries for presentation at 2018 Georgia Libraries Conference. Criteria for selection include purpose, content, organization, scholarship, and references. Papers should include research on developments in academic libraries that present challenging opportunities for libraries and librarianship throughout the state, region, or nation. Papers should be approximately 2000 words.

The Georgia Library Quarterly (GLQ) may invite selected authors to submit their papers for possible publication in GLQ.

GLA will award a cash prize for the paper selected as the top entry and complimentary Georgia Library conference registration for the second and third entry. The three top papers will be presented at the Georgia Libraries Conference in Columbus, GA.

Notice of Intention:

Submit via email a notice of intent and a brief abstract. Send emails with the subject line "ALD Research Papers" to csharpe@kennesaw.edu. Your notice of intent should contain your name, address, phone number, email address, a tentative title, and a brief (200 word) abstract by April 2, 2018.

Optional Pre-submission Peer Review

If you want your paper reviewed by scholarly writing experts prior to the final submission, e-mail it to csharpe@kennesaw.edu by June 1, 2018.

Paper Submission:

The final paper (approximately 2000 words) must be submitted by July 16, 2018.

Use the APA (American Psychological Association) as the style guide for the submission.

Notification of Results: August 13, 2018
